About the Australian Learning Group Pty Ltd

The Australian Learning Group (ALG) currently operates under three trading names:

- NSW School of Massage
- Australian College of Sport & Fitness
- Australian College of Dance

ALG delivers nationally recognised qualifications in the Fitness, Massage Therapy and Dance Teaching industries.

Training is offered as both campus-based learning and distance education learning, with some programs enabling students to enrol across Australia.

About NSW School of Massage

Since 1985 the NSW School of Massage has been providing students with the necessary skills and qualifications required to become a skilled and confident professional massage therapist. We are accredited with the Australian Traditional Medicine Society (ATMS) and our courses are recognised by Association of Massage Therapists (AMT), the Australian Association of Massage Therapists (AAMT) and other industry associations.

The School has an excellent reputation producing graduates of a very high standard. We are very highly regarded within the industry. You can expect a "family" feel as you study with us providing you with a genuinely caring and supportive environment. By typically limiting our massage class sizes to 20 students, we find that our students learn quickly and thoroughly, and bond easily with other class members.

Graduate students will also be able to register with the leading associations for massage professionals such as the Australian Association of Massage Therapists and Australian Massage Therapists.

About Australian College of Sport and Fitness

The Australian College of Sport & Fitness (ACSF) provides professional education and qualifications for the fitness industry.

All courses combine hands on practical experience with a good grounding in the core principles of fitness theory.

We are focused on getting you "job ready". Emphasis is placed on providing you with experience and contacts in the industry even before you graduate.

Graduates will also be able to register with Fitness Australia or Physical Activity Australia, the leading associations for fitness professionals.

About Australian College of Dance

The Australian College of Dance (ACSF) provides professional education and qualifications for the dance teaching industry.

Students will enjoy programs that are fun and "hands-on". This approach to learning means they will get plenty of practical experience in Dance across our range of course options.

The college offers home study programs Australia-wide as well as CRICOS accredited classroom courses on our campuses.

Industry Associations

ALG qualifications are recognized by all industry associations who recognise Australian national vocational education and training qualifications.

In deciding on an industry association to join, graduates should ensure their association recognize and accept membership based on national vocational education and training qualifications.

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015

ALG is a Registered Training Organisation and as such the assessment structure used by ALG follows the Australian Qualification Training Framework as follows:

- C = Competent
- NC = Not Competent

A student is deemed either 'Competent' or 'Not Competent' as a result of the successful or unsuccessful completion of relevant assessment in relation to the competencies/elements studied.

Students who have failed assessments may re-sit the assessment until competency is reached and in line with our policies in this area.
